TO YOUNG MEN.

A great deal has been said in this cam about the fact that Gen. Goff is a young man, as if that circumstance disqualified framed its constitution, were not so nar-Democrats. They did not forget, as these the author of the Declaration of Indepentherefore established 25 years of age as the Legislature from 75 to 89 members Congress. Col. Wilson and his friends, the illustrious men who framed the Federal Constitution, would disfranchise $131. Gen. GOFF from the privileges belonging to him as an American citizen, by arousing popular prejudice against his youth. Genl. Goff is over the age required by the Constitution of his country. What for the position. He has given them such an effectual taste of his quality in these respects in this campaign that they have en compelled to resort to the miserable make shift about his youth.

We appeal to the young men of Wheelworth, ability and gallantry, who has tempted proscription by the Bourbon thirteen years ago, and he is old enough to serve her now in the great Council of a man who has not struck a foul blow in this canvass, but who has quitted himself on every occasion like a high-minded soldier and citizen, that he should be warmly supported by those who appreciate a man for what there is in him, rrespective of his age. Young men of Wheeling, rise above party prejudices to-day, and cast your votes for Goff.

BOGUS TICKETS.

Examine your tickets to-day. Remember the great pasting operation performed by the Head Center of the Bourbon ring in this city at the Richietown polls in 1870. He is as sly to day as he was then, and is still liable to be around at that and other places with his paste pot and scis-Therefore look narrowly to your tickets. It is a consummation devoutly to be wished that the independent and honest voters of the State will not become a party to this injunitous business. Just at this juncture, to elevate WALKER people out of their money, dare go before them seeking a position of still greater responsibility and trust, is an act of such unblushing effrontery and impudence as to be almost without a parallel in public scandal. And yet for the election of this man, LEWIS BAKER, the great mogul of the Democracy in these parts, pledges the vote of Mr. A. J. PANNELL. Nor has that public pledge of Mr. BAKER ever been denied by the gentleman in question. Shall Ohio county assist in the elevation of WALKER by electing his friends to the Legislature?

VOTE EARLY.

It is always a safe and sure policy to vote early in the day. It is a proper encouragement to those who labor at the polls for the good of the cause. It inspires them to greater exertions. It is evidence of interest and earnestness and often materially assists in deciding the fortunes of the day. We appeal to all opponents of the Ring to vote as early as possible in the day.

What a Democrat Said About Goff. After General Gove's speech at Parkersburg on Saturday, an old line Democrat, who could not repress his enthusiasm for the gallant soldier boy who fights so fair and yet with so much splendid spirit and ability, was heard to say, "Col.

It is a political opponent's blunt and out spoken acknowledgement of the popular enthustasm and sympathy that Gorr arouses GOFF is too young to go to Congress.
